RADIO NEWS FOR FEB 7-28 1949

NEW RADIO RECEIVERS ARE HERE!!

The first shipment of the new Freed-Eisemann Radio receivers has been received and distributed to an initial 50 schools. These new special "Educator" classroom portable receivers are designed for classroom use following recommendations of KALW and others in the radio education field. It is suggested that every effort be made to gain the maximum use from these receivers. Many schools have teachers who have been trained to use this equipment through In-Service Courses and may be called on to help other teachers in location, tuning and lesson organization.

During the spring semester the staff of KALW will visit each receiver location and will be available to help with individual school problems in reception.

Schools are invited to use receivers to the utmost where programs may enrich the curriculum. Receivers are constructed to withstand constant moving with ordinary care, are protected, have underwriters' labels and have enclosures to avoid danger to students or teachers.

Portable receivers, as all portable equipment, should be stored in a safe place to avoid theft, but principals are urged to allow full access to the procurement of the equipment by teachers on short notice during the school day.

Repair to receivers will be done by KALW by calling ATwater 2-6042.

SPRING SEMESTER - IN-SERVICE COURSES

Ed. 341 How to Use Radio and Transcriptions in the Classroom. A course for all teachers to demonstrate procedures, equipment and techniques of using these devices in the teacher's own class work. Emphasis is placed upon coordination with the teacher's actual classroom problems. (Class meets Wednesday, 3:45 - 5:45 P.M.) First meeting February 9, 1949.

Ed. 341-A How to Produce Radio Shows in the Classroom. A course for teachers who wish information and opportunities to do radio programs with their own classes. Writing of scripts, production and the recording and broadcasting of the class show will comprise the semester's project. The use of sound effects, recorders and public address equipment available in the teacher's school will be emphasized to correlate the teacher's work closely with the course. (Class meets Thursday, 3:45 - 5:45 P.M.) First meeting February 10, 1949.

ED. 341A IN-SERVICE TRAINING WORKSHOP TRANSCRIPTIONS

Starting Wednesday, February 9, 1949, the productions of the group of teachers enrolled in the Fall Semester In-Service class ED. 341A, "Radio Production", will be aired each week at 9:30 - 10:00 AM.

See the following log for schools, titles and time.

NATIONAL CHILDREN'S DENTAL HEALTH DAY

FEBRUARY 8

KALW will air a special Children's Dental Health program on February 8 at 9:45 - 10:00 featuring Lewis W. Schohl, Jr., D.D.S. and transcribed messages from Hollywood Radio Stars to children.

A transcription of the broadcast may be borrowed by teachers after the show.

STORIES OF AMERICAN INDUSTRY

During March and April, 1949, KALW will produce and record a series of eight dramatic shows, "Stories of American Indsutry".

These fifteen minute shows will be useful for social studies, vocational guidance, speech and drama groups. Production will be by the KALW workshop group. Transcriptions will be available for loan after production. Scripts will accompany transcriptions and are available for pre and post program lesson planning.
